Rounder textured whites – not everybody likes big bold flavours. With more subtle upfront fruit, these wines shine on the palate. Beautifully textured with nutty and savoury undertones. They have softer and slightly creamier texture that really comes to its own with food.

Tropical fruit dominates the palate of this Chardonnay which shows a touch of spice.
- 8. Chenin Blanc, Lowrys Pass, Stellenbosch (South Africa) £5.50/£7.25/£20.95

A few aromatics – real gems among the wine styles. The purity and intensity of fruit flavours are just amazing. They are not too rich, they still have fantastic acidity. Great on its own or with slightly spicier food.

Rich full bodied whites – for any wine to gain real richness and creaminess it has to be made in or with some oak. But there is oak and there is OAK. It is how they use the oak that makes all the difference. Well integrated oak adds real complexity to the wine, it adds creaminess, toastiness, vanilla, coconut, tropical fruit...but still retaining great balance and acidity.
